Albany Memorial Day Parade
29 May 2023

MISSION:

Who: CBA Brigade & Middle School

What: Memorial Day Parade

Where: Central Avenue, Downtown Albany

When: 9:00AM, Monday May 29th, 2023

Why: To remember those who gave their lives for our freedom.

FORMATION:

All Cadets report to their platoon leader, at the north corner of Central Ave and Partridge Street (parking lot across the street from Family Dollar) no later than 8:30 am (Roads close at 8:00). The order of March is Administrators, Middle School, Brigade Staff, Color Guard, 1st Battalion, Band, and 2nd Battalion.

ROUTE OF MARCH:

The brigade marches from the corner of Central Ave. and Partridge St east on Central, past the reviewing stand (located at the State Education Building across from the Capitol Building), and turns left onto North Hawk Street. North Hawk is the release point. The brigade will be dismissed from this location.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:

-The uniform is the Blue Uniform with white pants, hats with white hat covers and white gloves. The Middle school will wear their school uniforms.

-Remember the Police will close the streets off at approximately 8:00 am. Plan accordingly.

-We will call fall-in at 0830 so we can take attendance.

-Students who are not in the correct uniform will not be allowed to march

(DON'T FORGET YOUR HAT & GLOVES).

- This is a mandatory parade for members of the Cadet brigade, failure to attend can result in an incomplete grade for JROTC and 10 Demerits (equal to 2 Demerit Lines).

Please remember that the primary purpose of Memorial Day is to remember those who gave their lives so that we might enjoy the life we live today. Their sacrifice enables us to enjoy a festive day of picnics, sporting events and family gatherings; the least we can do to honor them is to spend two (2) hours of our time remembering their sacrifice and the families they left behind.

Questions regarding this event please contact SFC Reeves at reeves@cbaalbany.org or 518-452-9809 ext 151.

Approval:
